A BUSY WEEK

I'm sorry for not posting anything for a few days, but I was so busy last week.

On Monday, I worked at the restaurant until 1am. There was a big birthday party with lots of guests, and I only arrived home at 2am!

Tuesday was a bit better. I stayed at home and did some housework. I cleaned the kitchen and washed the floors. In the evening I watched a film on the TV with my boyfriend.

On Wednesday, I visited my grandmother. We walked by the river near her house. In the evening, she cooked a delicious dinner and we listened to some music.

On Thursday, my sister invited me to a party at her friend's. It was great. We danced all night!
