

Aa

25.2 CROSS OUT THE INCORRECT WORD IN EACH SENTENCE

Living in Cairo, I managed to pick ~~on~~ / up Arabic quickly.

1

After only a few weeks living in Italy, I was able to make / ~~take~~ myself understood.

4

My uncle is fluent of / in five different languages.

2

I have a good ear / nose for languages. I learned Swahili in six months.

5

I speak conversational / conversing German, but my grammar is awful.

3

The language wall / barrier stopped me from talking to Wen.

6

Juan finds the pronounce / pronunciation of the word "squirrel" impossible.

Aa

25.3 WRITE THE CORRECT EXPRESSION NEXT TO ITS DEFINITION

the way in which you make sentences from separate words

=

grammar

1 the way people from a country or region pronounce a word

=

2 able to speak two languages fluently

=

3 a person who speaks a language as their first language

=

4 the ability to communicate using spoken language

=

5 to speak without making mistakes

=

6 the set of words that make up a language

=

7 able to use a language easily, without making many mistakes

=
