

41.1 WORKPLACE IDIOMS

The store was closed for remodeling, but it's business as usual now.

business as usual

[the normal daily routine at a company]

Health and safety in the warehouse involves a lot of red tape.

red tape

[administration, paperwork, or rules and regulations]

We're in the red after losing three of our clients this year.

in the red

[owing money or making a loss]

This is the best deal we can offer.

The ball is in your court now.

the ball is in your court

[it is your turn to do or say something]

Let's get the ball rolling. What do you all think of this logo design?

to get the ball rolling

[to start something]

This product will never sell. We're throwing money down the drain.

to throw money down the drain

[to waste money]

The client loves our cars and we've agreed on a great price. It's a win-win situation.

a win-win situation

[a situation with no negative outcome]

You need to think outside the box to come up with good designs.

to think outside the box

[to think about something in an original way]

This client will never be satisfied because he keeps moving the goalposts.

to move the goalposts

[to change the desired end result]

Let's get down to business. I have to leave by 5 o'clock.

to get down to business

[to start work on something that needs doing]

