

16.9 Listen and read.

I can play basketball.

I can play basketball.

Use can if you are able to do something.

I can't play baseball.

Use can't if you are unable to do something.

How it works

Can is a modal verb used to talk about things you are able to do. The negative form is can't.

Cannot → Can't

