

21.12 Listen and read.

What a beautiful dress!

What a beautiful dress!

Say What a, followed by a describing word (an adjective).

What dirty shoes!

To describe two or more things, just say What.

How it works

To explain or emphasize what you think of something, put What a before an adjective and noun. To describe two or more things, just say What.

