

24.10 Listen and read.

Whose ball is this?

Say this to ask who owns something.

Add is this to finish the question.

How it works

Whose is a question word used to ask who owns something.

Mine is an example of a possessive pronoun. These are used to say who owns something.

This means the ball belongs to me.

24.11 Listen and read.

The ball belongs to you.

The ball belongs to him.

The ball belongs to her.

The ball belongs to our group.

The ball belongs to more than one of you.

The ball belongs to them.