What's that?

What's that?

Use that to ask about a thing that is not near you.

It's a lizard.

lion.

frog.

How it works

When asking about something near you, say What's this?
To ask about something that is not near you, say What's that?
To answer the question, say It's a and add the name of the thing.
