Which pet is big?

Which pet is big?

This is the question word.

This is the thing you're asking about.

The dog.

Put The before the answer.

Which one is small?

You can replace the thing with one.

The mouse.

How it works

To ask a question about a specific thing from a group, use the question word which. Put the before the answer, unless it's someone's name.

Mouse has an irregular plural form.
mouse → mice
